Where: Oakstone Academy
939 S. State St., Westerville

In memoriam

Shan Ann Mann, CONA member and beloved wife of Hugh Mann, passed away Jan. 7.

Earl Teaford, former CNS and COINS member, died Nov. 30 at the age of 86.

November presentation

Tony Cass and Brad Karoleff gave a wonderful presentation that centered on contemporary counterfeit Capped Bust halves.

"These are worth money," Tony said. "Many times the counterfeits are worth more than the real ones."

Brad said, "The worse it looks the more it's worth."

There is even a club devoted to the series of fakes - Contemporary Counterfeit Capped Bust Half Club.

Brad said the second edition of Contemporary Counterfeit Capped Bust Half Dollars has just been printed. It's available for $49.95 plus shipping from Richard W. Irons, Box 4482, Lancaster, PA 17604-4482.

Christmas banquet presentation

Wow! What a great banquet. Nancy Brill, Marlene Caldwell, Charles Caldwell and Ed Hilbert did a great job of planning and executing the event.

Richard E. Barrett, longtime local historian and author, gave a fascinating talk on Christmas in Columbus. Santa Ed Hilbert produced a great series of displays on club history. Three pages of photos are attached.

Dues

They're due. Pay at the meeting or mail your $15 or $21 check to the Dublin address above.

Raffle

YN Alex Price won the raffle, a 1946 Iowa Commem half dollar. The contingent that collects 1946-dated coins was especially hot after the coin.

Board of Directors

Terms of Gary Heberline, John Roberts and Evan Brill expire in February.

President Charles Caldwell says, "We will need to vote three new people in or if these three want to run again they can. We will have nominations, from the floor at our Jan. meeting, and we will take a vote on them at our Feb. meeting. Their term will start in March and run for three years."

Auction

Lots: Send February lots to Steve Barnett - sbarnet5@columbus.rr.com - by Feb. 6.
